New Agreement With Becker Educational Programs

This agreement provides AGA members with discounts for using Becker review classes. New for 2011 is a discount of $600 (increased from $300 in 2010) off the list price for AGA members that are Local Government employees. If a AGA member chooses not take the discount, they may receive the Becker CPA flashcards at no cost instead with registration for a four part review course. You must identify yourself as an AGA member when registering with Becker. Questions regarding the discounts, please contact Becker's Director of Government Programs, John Gioeli at 703.631.8840.

Top 10 Reasons to Join AGA

10. Keep up with the Latest Issues

In today's busy society, everyone knows it is harder than ever to keep up with the latest issues-to know who's doing what, and how. One way you can have regular access to the latest information-and build your professional network at the same time-is by attending AGA's NASBA-certified seminars, conferences and local chapter events. It is the best opportunity you have to keep on keeping up...and as a member, you're assured of hearing about all of the conferences and meetings well in advance. Another way is by receiving AGA publications, which are all easily accessible to members on the AGA website and are also e-mailed right to your desktop.

9. Stop Reinventing the Wheel

AGA is the ONLY professional association that boasts a membership across ALL levels of government-local, state and federal. Plus, AGA also has members who work for tribal governments, academic institutions and private sector organizations. The greatest benefit AGA makes available to you is access to this powerful community of professionals. With a membership at 15,000, you can talk with peers, find solutions to current issues and seek advice, all within minutes!
